

Profiles of Excellence in Action | November 2010

Welcome to Profiles of Excellence in Action, a monthly e-newsletter showcasing news and events from Kent State University. In this month's issue, learn about Kent State's new iPhone application, the university's ascent to the second largest public university in the state and welcoming Andre Thornton to Kent State. Also, find out about a new discovery at the Liquid Crystal Institute and a new and noteworthy exhibit at the Kent State University Museum.

Kent State Launches New iPhone Application

Now available on iPhones: Kent State news, events, university directory and map, as well as access to Kent State images and video.

read more

Enrollment Growth Propels Kent State to Second Largest Public University in Ohio

Kent State University now ranks as the second largest public university in the state of Ohio, moving up a spot from the number three position it had previously held.

read more

Andre Thornton Becomes Kent State's First President's Ambassador

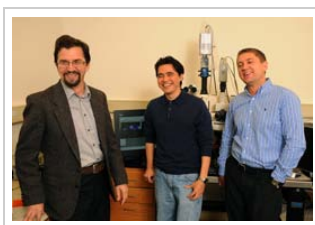

Kent State University has appointed Cleveland baseball legend and businessman Andre Thornton as its first President's Ambassador.

read more

Kent State Research Team Discovers New Phenomenon Involving Liquid Crystals

A team of researchers at Kent State University has discovered a new version of a widely used scientific technique. The technique is electrophoresis, in which an applied electric field is used to move particles dispersed in a fluid, and the new idea is to use a liquid crystal as the carrier fluid.

read more

New and Noteworthy will showcase some unique pieces at the Kent State University Museum.

read more

- KSU Home
- KSU Alumni
- KSU Magazine
- Past Issues
- Contact Us

